

ATCS (AW/SW) Eddie Cobb

Senior Enlisted Leader, Air Test and Evaluation
Squadron NINE,
Detachment Edwards Air Force Base
United States Navy

Senior Chief Cobb joined the Navy from Fort Polk, Louisiana enlisting in May of 2001. His first duty station was aboard PCU Ronald Reagan (CVN 76) from 2002-2006. While aboard the USS Reagan, he advanced to Second Class Petty Officer and earned his Air and Surface Warfare designations. Originally stationed in Newport News, VA for construction and commissioning, he took the ship “Around the Horn” of South America and on her WESTPAC maiden deployment earning his “Golden Shellback” and “Plankowner” designations.

His next tour was aboard the USS Kitty Hawk (CV-63) from 2006-2009. While stationed aboard the Kitty Hawk in Yokosuka, Japan, he went on multiple patrols and eventually brought the ship back to Bremerton, Washington for decommissioning.

Following his time onboard the Kitty Hawk, he was stationed at Fleet Readiness Center Southwest from 2009-2012. During his time there, he was advanced to First Class Petty Officer and survived Perform to Serve and Enlisted Review Board, which allowed him to continue his active-duty service.

His next sea tour took him to the USS Nimitz (CVN-68) from 2012-2016. While aboard the Nimitz, he went on multiple work ups and deployed on one WESTPAC, during which he was diverted to the Red Sea during the 2013 conflict in Syria. While aboard, he was advanced to Chief Petty Officer.

From the USS Nimitz, he went to CFWP AIMD Guam from 2016 to 2019.

Lastly, he was transferred to USS America (LHA-6) from 2019 to 2022 in Sasebo Japan. While aboard the USS America, he went on multiple patrols and COVID patrols. He was advanced to Senior Chief while aboard the USS America.

Senior Chief Cobb has earned his associate degree from Central Texas College, his bachelor’s degree from National University, and his Master of Business Administration from Washington State University.

His Personal awards include the Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal (2 awards), Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal (3 awards), Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal, and numerous unit and campaign awards. He is happily married, and a proud father to his son and daughter.
